TODAY'S UPDATE

1. Going into the weekend, CMMC will not be accepting critical care or trauma admissions. The chiefs of service have been notified and Incident Command will evaluate our status throughout the weekend.
2. We currently have 44 team members out because of COVID exposure or symptoms. Please remain vigilant with infection prevention measures regardless of your vaccination status.
3. Please do not use the Infection Prevention pager to report community exposures of asymptomatic team members. These are no longer considered emergent situations because the vast majority of team members are vaccinated and quarantine is not needed unless the team member has active symptoms. To report these situations, please call the main number for Infection Prevention: 795-2892.
4. We're aware that some team members are having trouble setting up myHealthLink accounts to receive COVID test results. The team has identified the problem and the situation will be resolved before long. Thank you for your patience.
5. Good news! None of Rumford Community Home's residents are COVID positive or on isolation now.
