TODAY'S UPDATE

The orientation of our 17 Maine National Guard members continues. Their activities today included shadowing nurses and nursing assistants. They'll continue to train through the weekend. We anticipate that the swing-bed unit on M2 will accept its first patient Tuesday.

Thank you to the Guard personnel and to all who have been working to set up the unit to help decompress the hospital and allow us to care for more patients.

Have a great and safe weekend!
